COACHING SKILLS TO LEAD WITH CONFIDENCE

Join us for a one-day interactive workshop titled "Coaching Skills to Lead with Confidence" with Certified Leadership Coach, Catherine Schinkel. Tailored specifically for the operational managers and supervisors serving Manitoba Public School Divisions, this workshop is designed to equip you with foundational coaching skills that can be immediately applied in your roles to foster a more supportive, engaging, and effective work environment.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- Understand the principles and benefits of coaching in a leadership context.
- Develop core coaching skills, including active listening, powerful questioning, and building rapport.
- Apply the GROW Model to facilitate effective coaching conversations.
- Build confidence in addressing common coaching challenges.
- Create a personal action plan to integrate coaching into your leadership practice.

BIO - Catherine Schinkel

With over 20 years of experience in human resources across various functions and industries, Catherine Schinkel is a dynamic HR leader with executive-level expertise in developing and implementing transformational people strategies.

A certified coach, Catherine has designed and delivered numerous workshops on leadership development, coaching skills, and HR best practices. Catherine also teaches for Simon Fraser University and has taught for the University of Winnipeg and Red River College. Passionate about continuous learning, Catherine enjoys mentoring others, helping them expand their skills, and connecting them with resources to support their goals.

For three years, Catherine served as the head of HR for Manitoba's second-largest school division, giving her insight into the challenges faced by operational leaders. She is currently the Director of Talent and Culture for the International Institute for Sustainable Development, where she is responsible for leading strategic initiatives that strengthened organizational capacity and culture.
